

Natural Condition Prunes

Physical      Unit Size      Sold by Pounds

Masterpack      N/A

Case              N/A
Dimensions

Cubic Feet      N/A

Shipping        0
Weight

Pallet            N/A
Configuration

Product Shelf 3 Years
Life

Serving Info      Serving Size

Servings per Case

Analytical      Color              Typical of Natural Condition Prunes. Newly dehydrated prunes are reddish/brown. The typical natural condition prune is almost dark brown/black in color.

Foreign
Material                      None

Offgrade                      Offgrade is determined using the Dried Fruit Association (DFA) scoring methodology.

Origin                      Product is grown and processed in the State of California, USA. All prunes are of the "French" d'Agen variety. These fruits are of natural genetic origin (non-GMO).